

All the Miles Away

music and lyrics by Tom Schena

Verse 1

Well it's hard to be inspired
When you feel oh so tired
You just wanna go home.
And I know the feeling
Of working in the evening
Dreaming the hours away

Chorus A

As my thoughts go racing
Towards a future I've been chasing
Following those old yellow lines
I can see tomorrow and it only took today
To realize the beauty all the miles away.

Verse 2

Well your beauty's set in motion
You love the commotion
Of those steel wheels that roll on by Cause if it were not for you
I'd never get a chance to view
A more precious life

Verse 3

My bags are packed
And I'm heading for the door
I can't take the waiting any more
You'll always hold the key
To old souls like me
Who love to wander free.

Chorus B

So as my thoughts go racing
A future I've been chasing
Following those old yellow lines
I can see tomorrow and it only took today
To realize the beauty all the miles away.

[repeat]

TOM SCHEANA LYRICS