

Autumn Wind

music and lyrics by Tom Schena

Verse 1

Woodstoves are running on a another able year
Just in time to watch the leaves disappear
Autumn has fallen on another able year
Just in time to watch the leaves disappear.

Chorus

So let the autumn wind blow you around again.
Again and again,
Let the autumn wind blow you around again
Again and again.

Verse 2

There's a young boy, raking up the leaves
For a dollar of his own
And he can smell the firing roaring deep inside the chimney
Burning black on the soul of a stone.

Chorus

Verse 3

If you love the summer sun, kicking back and having fun
Maybe this ain't the right song for you
But if you like a little cold and dreaming of a little snow, and Feeling the chilly wind on your skin.
